Proclamation 3793

CAPTIVE NATIONS WEEK, 1967

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

WHEREAS the joint resolution approved July 17, 1959 (73 Stat. 212), authorizes and requests the President of the United States of America to issue a proclamation each year designating the third week in July as "Captive Nations Week" until such time as freedom and independence shall have been achieved for all the captive nations of the world; and

WHEREAS freedom and justice are basic human rights to which all men are entitled; and

WHEREAS the independence of peoples requires their exercise of the elemental right of free choice; and

WHEREAS these inalienable rights have been circumscribed or denied in many areas of the world; and

WHEREAS the United States of America, from its founding as a nation has had an abiding commitment to the principles of national independence and human freedom:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate the week beginning July 16, 1967 as Captive Nations Week.

I invite the people of the United States of America to observe this week with appropriate ceremonies and activities, and I urge them to give renewed devotion to the just aspirations of all peoples for national independence and human liberty.

July 12, 1967

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this twelfth day of July in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and ninety-second.

Proclamation 3794

MODIFYING PROCLAMATION 3279 ADJUSTING IMPORTS OF PETROLEUM AND PETROLEUM PRODUCTS

By the President of the United States of America

July 17, 1967

A Proclamation

WHEREAS, pursuant to section 2 of the act of July 1, 1954, as amended (72 Stat. 678), and section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962 (76 Stat. 877), findings and determinations have been made that adjustments in the imports of crude oil, unfinished oils, and finished products were necessary so that such imports would not threaten to impair the national security, such adjustments have been made by Proclamation 3279 (24 F.R. 1781) and modified by Proclamation 3290 (24 F.R. 3527), Proclamation 3328 (24 F.R. 10133), Proclamation 3386 (25 F.R. 13945), Proclamation 3389 (26 F.R. 507, 811), Proclamation 3509 (27 F.R. 11985), Proclamation 3531 (28 F.R. 4077), Proclamation 3541 (28 F.R. 5931), Proclamation 3693 (30 F.R. 15459), and Proclamation 3779 (32 F.R. 5919); and 19 USC 1352a.

19 USC 1862.

19 USC 1862
note.

Ante, p. 1098.

WHEREAS, I find and determine that, in support of Federal, state and local rules and regulations for air pollution control, it is necessary to enhance the ability of the petroleum industry to provide adequate supplies of low sulphur residual fuel oil to be used as fuel; and

WHEREAS, I find that it is necessary to permit the entrance of new importers and to provide for allocations which will assure that adequate supplies of low sulfur residual fuel oil to be used as fuel will be distributed to users of such products; and

WHEREAS, I find and determine that such action will be compatible with the purposes of Proclamation 3279:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, LYNDON B. JOHNSON, President of the United States of America, acting under and by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and the statutes, including section 232 of the Trade Expansion Act of 1962, do hereby proclaim that:

1. Subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of section 2 of Proclamation 3279, as amended, is amended to read as follows:

75 Stat. 1019.

(2) The maximum level of imports of residual fuel oil to be used as fuel into Districts I, Districts II–IV, and District V for a particular allocation period shall be the level of imports of that product into those districts during the calendar year 1957 as adjusted by the Secretary as he may determine to be consonant with the objectives of this proclamation.

2. Paragraph (d) of section 2 of Proclamation 3279, as amended, is revoked and paragraph (e) of section 2 is redesignated as paragraph (d).
